Family Resources for Distance Learning
Morgan County Schools

Audible—Free streaming of stories as long as schools are closed! These are appropriate for all ages PK-Adult.
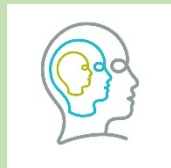

All icons are hyperlinks.

Cacapon Institute Potomac Highlands Watershed eSchool—virtual classroom activities and tools for students, teachers, and families.

Child Mind Institute—Digital support for families whose children need specialized clinical care.

Common Sense Media:  Resources for Parents During the Coronavirus Pandemic-- Free lessons by grade and topic that provide interactive opportunities for students to learn about digital citizenship.

MoMath—National Museum of Mathematics—This site contains mind benders for the quarantined, educator-led sessions for PK-12, math play mini-classes for preschoolers, a book club for tweens and teens, and much more!

NASA—NASA's entire media library is now publicly accessible and copyright free.

NPR—This link will take you to a comic strip that is appropriate for helping to explain Covid-19 to children.

PBS Learning Media—Free digital media library with curriculum-targeted resources PK-12

Read Works--free content, curriculum, and comprehension tools for grades K-12.

Scholastic Learn At Home—projects to keep kids reading, thinking, and growing.

Zaner-Blosser—Handwriting, reading, and grammar activities